

REDEFINE LIVING GROUP.
LUXURY ADVISORY & REAL ESTATE ACQUISITIONS

INTRODUCTION

Redefine Living Group is a bespoke luxury advisory firm providing discreet sourcing and acquisition services for luxury residences, real estate investments, and curated lifestyle assets.

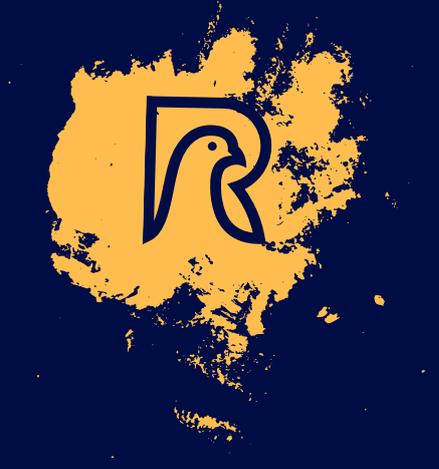

Founded with a strong focus on the acquisition of prime and super-prime real estate, the firm has expanded its offering to provide clients with access to a wider ecosystem of exclusive opportunities through a trusted global network of partners and specialists.

At Redefine Living Group, our purpose is simple: to simplify access to exceptional opportunities for clients who value quality, efficiency, and discretion.

Through our established international network of trusted partners and specialists, we are also able to provide access to a wider ecosystem of luxury lifestyle assets and collector items. This includes the sourcing and acquisition of cars, private jets, helicopters, yachts, fine jewellery, luxury watches, luxury fashion, accessories and fine art.

In addition, we support clients with bespoke lifestyle services, including luxury travel arrangements such as private jet, helicopter, and yacht charter, alongside security coordination and other concierge services designed to ensure a seamless and discreet client experience.

Every service is delivered with the highest levels of discretion, efficiency, and attention to detail, ensuring our clients enjoy seamless access to the finest opportunities, wherever they may be in the world.

REAL ESTATE

Our real estate advisory service provides clients with an end-to-end residential and commercial acquisitions service. We provide private clients with market leading intelligence and investment opportunities because this is what they demand.

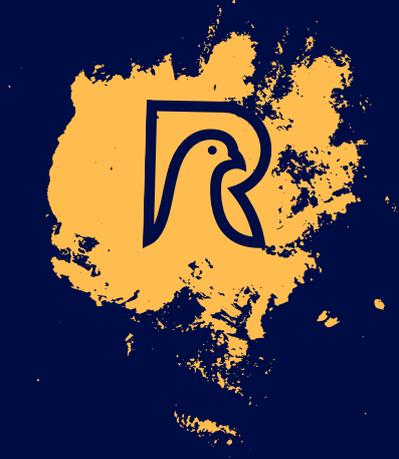

We work with individual UHNW investors, institutions, funds, REIT's and family offices acquiring assets in the region of £1m-£200m+

'Delivering excellence in real estate -
it's our intelligence, expertise, global network and deal-flow.'

A client-tailored acquisition service specialising in:

- Residential blocks for the private rental and social housing sectors
- Commercial real estate - hotels, industrial, logistics & healthcare
- Land with or without planning
- Prime & Super Prime residences - we acquire luxury real estate most sought after locations globally

At Redefine Living Group, consistency, discretion and foresight define everything we do. We understand that serving wealth requires more than access; it demands emotional intelligence, ethical clarity and self awareness.

LUXURY RESIDENCES

Redefine Living Group provides discreet advisory and acquisition services for prime and super-prime residential property in the world's most sought-after locations. Our clients seek exceptional homes and residential assets across global wealth centres.

Through our international network we offer privileged access to on-market and off-market opportunities, including luxury penthouses, waterfront villas, country estates, ski chalets and architecturally significant residences. These properties are often among the most desirable homes globally, reflecting the highest standards of design, location and exclusivity.

Our role is to act as a trusted advisor throughout the entire acquisition process. From sourcing and due diligence to negotiation and completion, we manage each stage with precision and discretion. For many of our clients, time and privacy are invaluable, and our service is designed to provide a seamless and confidential pathway to securing exceptional property assets.

Leveraging deep market insight and a global network across key wealth hubs, we help clients identify opportunities that align with both lifestyle aspirations and long-term investment strategies.

We provide a highly personalised service and act as a single point of contact for clients navigating international property markets.

Whether acquiring a signature city residence, a waterfront retreat, or a strategic residential investment, Redefine Living Group ensures clients gain access to the finest real estate opportunities available globally.
